

Minutes of the Annual General Meeting of Navjivan Vadil Kendra held on 6th March 2008 at 2.00 p.m. at Sayer Centre.

1. Meeting started at 2.00 p.m. with a presence of 100 members.
2. Meeting was started by the President with prayers. Silence for one minute was kept for those who died in the previous year.
3. The President read out his report outlining the achievements of the Kendra in a short time, thanked various people for their help and support, talked of future plans and wished the Kendra a great future. He expressed his regret that due to space we had to stop taking any new members.
4. The secretary presented a lengthy annual report. He outlined the reasons for the creation of the Kendra, and how it was a dream to create an interesting retired life for our people. Every programme and highlight of the previous year was highlighted. He also thanked each and every person who had contributed to this great success.
5. Surendra Mehta, who had helped to prepare the accounts, presented the annual accounts. Jayantilal D Sheth the treasurer for last year had resigned and Baburai T Shah had taken over as the new treasurer. There were not many questions on the accounts. The accounts were approved proposed by Chandrakant Doshi and seconded by Rita Shah. Surendra thanked Chetan Parekh for spending lot of time on reviewing the accounts.
6. It was proposed and passed that Chetan Parekh be appointed as Independent Reviewer for the current year.
7. In any other business the following discussion took place:
 - In view of closure of membership, a proposal was made to start the gathering on second day during the week. The committee will consider this proposal.
 - It was suggested that more films, shows and plays should be arranged so members can take advantage.
 - It was suggested that more programmes should be arranged and encourage all members to stay till late to take advantage of the same.
 - It was proposed that lessons should be given in bridge and bukharo so members can learn those games.
 - It was suggested that the aim of the Kendra is that “we look after each other.”
 - Amongst other proposals were that visits should be arranged to Buckingham Palace, Blackpool, Skanda Vale temple and Amsterdam.

The meeting was concluded at 3.30 p.m.
