PROGRAMMES IN OCTOBER:

3/10: As it was Navratri, after lunch we had Garba and Dandia-Raas in the downstairs hall. Members had come dressed in colourful attires to celebrate this festival. Everyone enjoyed playing Garba and Dandia Raas. Aarti was performed towards the end, and many members had brought Prasad, which was distributed at the end. Kendra's thanks to Harenbhai Meswani for providing the music.

Lunch

Celebrating a special birthday, or wedding anniversary? Or in memory of someone dear?

Then Sponsor a lunch for £301.00. 10 guests allowed. Special lunch for £601.00

08/10: Though we had a less crowd because of Ayambil, those who had come participated in the garba/dandia and enjoyed the live music with mataji's garba till the end.)

17/10: After lunch we had a very informative talk on various aspects of scams, frauds, elderly abuse etc.

First Police Officers: PC Hobday from Northwick Park Ward, PC Cox and PCSO Popa from Preston Ward spoke on crimes and burglaries, especially aggravated robberies and the precautions to be taken. Members asked many questions and these were replied in detail.

Then, Mark Mullally, Community Banker from NatWest Bank presented his detailed talk with slides. He spoke on telephone scams and call blocker, text messages fraud, postal scams, etc. He explained how the predatory criminals operate and precautions to take. He also said how the younger generation is targeted by scammers. He then spoke to individual members on their queries.

22/10: We had a fantastic Diwali Dhamaka at VIP Lounge. Full attendance of 380, Members and their friends enjoyed this programme. The hall décor, music and food was excellent. Everyone dressed in beautiful attires, just looked amazing. The table arrangements were great and thanks to Purnimaben who had worked very hard to make this easier on the day.

31/10: After lunch we had Mithai and Aarti Thali compition. While the judges were still deciding, a short play of Ram Bharat Milan was performed by Vinodbhai Kapashi and his team. It was very interesting and the costumes were very beautiful. Kendras thanks to all the participants. Congratulations to all the winners and all entrants.
