Dear Vadil Members

Welcome to September Newsletter. Hope everybody is keeping well and looking after themselves.

The month of August celebrated many Hindu festivals and Religious rituals. Many of our Jain members observed Maha Parva Paryushan. On Wednesday 31st August was the last day of Paryushan, and on that day we ask for forgiveness from our family, friends and acquaintances.

On behalf of our President Vinod Parekh and Secretary Jayant Doshi and the Committee Members We beg for your forgiveness if we have hurt you in any way.

Donations:

*Mrs Manjuben Pindoria distributed homemade eggless cake to the members, at lunch time, to celebrate the arrival of a baby boy Master 'PARAV' to their daughter NITISHA DINESH KERAI. Our congratulations to the Pindoria family from Kendra and all members.

*£50 from Mr Chhotubhai and Sushilaben Kothary. As grandparents to Kyle Kothary they are very happy to inform NVK members that their grandson took part in the Commonwealth Games, which were held in Birmingham recently, and Kyle won a SILVER MEDAL for England, in the diving section. This is an excellent achievement for Kyle, his proud parents and his grandparents. We wish Kyle every success in many future International Sports Competitions.

*£51 from Manharlal and Vidyaben Mehta to celebrate their granddaughter, Krishna Mehta, daughter of Daxesh and Kaksha Mehta, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in law and business studies (qualifying law degree) from the University of Warwick. Kendra's heartiest congratulations to Krishna, her proud parents and grandparents.

*£51 from Mr Chimanbhai and Ushaben Sheth on the occasion of their grandson Akhil Sheth achieving 2A* and 1A I in his A Levels. Akhil successfully got the entry into Nottingham University. Congratulations to Akhil and Sheth family and thanks for the kind donations.

*Ranjanben Kundalia Celebrated her birthday on 18/08. Her son surprised her by distributing chocolates to our members. Kendra's best wishes to her and thanks to her son for giving his mother a pleasant surprise.

* £101 from Indravadanbhai Sheth on the occasion of celebrating his 90th birthday. Thank you from Kendra to Indravadanbhai for the generous donation.

Kendra's heartiest congratulations to both the families and also happy birthday to Dilan.

PROGRAMMES IN AUGUST 2022:

04/08: Morning yoga was conducted by Manishaben. In the afternoon we played BINGO which was conducted by Dr Mahendrabhai Vora. Two rounds of Bingo were played, members enjoyed playing the Bingo.

11/08: Morning yoga was conducted by Jayeshbhai Shah, in the afternoon Dr Kapashi had organised a programme in celebration of India's Independence Day and the festival of Raksha-Bandhan. The celebration took place at 2pm after lunch. Many members came in colourful dresses, especially women wearing tri-colour dresses depicting three colours of India's national flag.

First, a procession was held in the main hall of the 27 Patidar Centre. Nationalistic songs were played and all walked with India's Tri-ranga in hands. The atmosphere was full of joy and all walked with chanting 'Vande Mataram' and 'Bharat Mata ki Jai.'

After a while ladies got Raksha threads in their hand and it was tied round the wrists of 'brothers'. This was a very interesting gesture and Vinodbhai Kapashi explained the significance of the festival.

Then members from the audience were asked to come forward and say a few words or sing songs. About 10 members took part and made the event highly successful. The last item was the singing of India's National Anthem. Every one stood with utmost respect and sang the Anthem.

18/08: Morning yoga was conducted by Manishaben. In the afternoon we had celebration of Janmastami. All came in colourful dresses to suit the occasion. Two tables were decorated by members with Krishna Bhagwan idols, flowers and Prasad. Members enthusiastically brought in offerings to present to Krishna Bhagwan.

Members sang Krishna Stavans to welcome lord Krishna into this world while Dr Vinodbhai Kapashi gave an articulate account of the birth of Lord Krishna. All enjoyed this celebrations and departed after having tea and biscuits.

25/08: Morning yoga was conducted by Manishaben. After lunch we were closed as many of our Jain members were observing Paryushan Maha Parva. President Vinod Parekh wished all the Jain members SHUKH SATTA.
